

Privacy Policy

It is Minnesota Assistance Council for Veterans (MACV) policy to respect and protect the privacy of our visitors. This policy statement tells you how we collect information from you and how that information is used and kept. Using the Internet should be a safe and enjoyable experience, and we take every precaution to make it so.

Users can visit our web site without revealing any personal information. If one chooses to provide personal information while on our web site for the purposes of correspondence, processing a request, or registering for an event, then it is our intent to let you know how we will use such information.

If users tell us that they do not wish to have this information used as a basis for further contact, we will respect those wishes. If users wish to review or correct the personal information we have collected, they should contact us to provide updated information.

MACV recognizes the importance of protecting any information we may collect from visitors to our web site. Our policy is to use this collected information for internal purposes only, and we maintain fitting security measures to keep this information private and secure. To prevent unauthorized access, maintain data accuracy, and to ensure the appropriate use of this information, we have put in place integrated physical, electronic, and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect. This information will not be disclosed to third parties for commercial purposes as MACV is committed to protecting our visitors' privacy.

Restrictions on Use of Materials

This web site is operated by MACV. No material from this web site or any web site owned, operated, licensed, or controlled by MACV may be copied, reproduced, republished, uploaded, posted, transmitted, or distributed in any way. All trademarks, service marks, and trade names are proprietary to MACV.

Contact MACV regarding any privacy issues or concerns by email mac-v@mac-v.org or by writing to:

Chief Operating Officer
Minnesota Assistance Council for Veterans
360 Robert Street N. #306
St. Paul, MN 55101
651-291-8756