Housing project in Minneapolis gives Veterans a place to get back on their feet

A unique property in north Minneapolis will serve as supportive housing for Veterans in crisis. The new construction along Humboldt Avenue is part of a project called Housing for Heroes, which provides temporary housing for Veterans and their families. Click here for the full story!

Feature Stories

2023 Veterans Day On The Hill

Our Vice President of Property Operations, Sara Riegler, was one of many speakers addressing Veterans' issues. The group was noticed with thunderous calls for ending Veteran homelessness, from the pre-rally event to the march to the rotunda rally! Click here for more photos and to read the whole story!

Hero's Hub at Twin Cities Auto Show

We were honored to join forces with other organizations at the Twin Cities Auto Show in support of our heroes!

Through this powerful partnership, we created a Hero's families access to invaluable resources. An inspiring night filled with recognition for those who serve or have served our country. Click here to learn more!

MACV Presents at Midwest's Largest Health and Human Service Event

We are incredibly proud of Amanda Hooper, our Senior Outreach Specialist who attended this year's Minnesota Social Services Association conference. Hooper represent MACV and shared her valuable insights and knowledge with fellow health and human service professionals. Click here to learn more!

Client Story

"This year in recovery has been the hardest year of my life, but MACV didn't judge me. They helped me grow." -Housed Marine Corps Veteran Mike

Mike reached out to MACV for help rebuilding his life from housing insecurity, dealing with past trauma, and coping with the loss of employment opportunities.

At 64, Mike has not given up on helping others or himself. Mike recently graduated from the Warriors Path program at Every Third Saturday, and Mike's MACV case managers are very proud of him. More importantly, Mike is proud of himself. Click here to read Mike's full story!

MACV Employee Spotlight

This month, we are featuring Luis Campero!

Luis served in the U.S. Army as a 71M Chapel Activities Specialist. Luis was drawn to MACV by his passion for supporting fellow Veterans. At MACV, Luis is an Employment Case Manager in St. Cloud. Luis is always prepared to serve a Veteran. Luis, we thank you for your service to our country and your service to our community. Click here to learn more about Luis!

National Volunteer Month!

MACV is celebrating National Volunteer Month! We are so grateful for our volunteers and the support they provide to us and the Veterans we serve. We cannot do what we do here at MACV without their support and generous donation of time and hard work!

Volunteering with MACV connects you with our vibrant community while contributing to the end of Veteran homelessness in Minnesota. Donor Spotlight

Warrior Nutrition

A big thank you to Warrior Nutrition for their generous support in hosting a fundraiser for Veterans rebuilding their lives in Minnesota. Your thoughtful donation to this cause is truly remarkable and appreciated by all of us. Your kind customer contributions are making a meaningful difference in the lives of these Veterans and their families.

White Castle

White Castle customers have shown their generous spirit yet again, coming together to donate over $8,000 to MACV! Their generosity is what will help us finally put an end to Veteran homelessness in Minnesota. We are grateful to the General Managers and all of those who showed support with a few cents here and there - you truly make a difference!

You Can Help End Veteran Homelessness

MACV has over thirty years of experience connecting with former service members across Minnesota. We use a variety of creative approaches to address the needs of individual Veterans experiencing housing instability or homelessness.

Supporting MACV empowers Veterans living in Minnesota, resulting in advocacy and assistance for Veterans starting a new chapter of their lives.
